

ECS: The Trade Show Carpeting Specialists

Founded in 1974, Exhibitors Carpet Service (ECS) specializes in serving the carpeting needs of the trade show, special events and convention industry. Starting with only three rolls of carpet, we now provide over nine million square feet of carpet per year on behalf of more than one thousand active customers.

A fully integrated supplier with our own carpet mill and distribution centers in Las Vegas and Chicago, we have sustained our success and the success of our customers by maintaining a singular focus: Offer unbeatable customer service and satisfaction. This focus sets us apart. It's the key reason why show planners, designers, event planners, general contractors, trade show managers, marketing executives and exhibit professionals all depend on ECS.

*dependable

ECS Operating Philosophy

Since day one we've made it a priority to hire and retain great people. At ECS, it's not unusual to encounter employees who have been with the company for ten, fifteen, twenty years or more. From your initial call to the delivery and installation of your carpet, you'll be working with friendly, skilled and experienced professionals every step of the way.

Simply stated, ECS has something you won't find anywhere else; unparalleled dedication to the customer. Our experienced, knowledgeable and resourceful group of men and women are committed to helping you and your business look the very best while serving your every need as an individual. We're focused on your success, and our growing list of satisfied customers are a testament to that very distinguishable factor.

Relax, We've Got You Covered

At ECS, we serve some of the most successful businesses and organizations in the world. General Motors, Caterpillar, Sony, Eastman Kodak, General Electric and Nintendo are just a few of the long-standing clientele that have entrusted ECS for tradeshow carpeting services. As a prospective ECS customer, we feel it meaningful to note that eighty to ninety percent of our customers come back to us frequently. This single factor makes a compelling case that the products, people and services of ECS will, as they have for many others over thirty years, meet and exceed your expectations.

Regardless of your business size or the number of tradeshows your company participates in during a given year, we welcome the opportunity to earn your trust and your business. We invite you to call us and let us know how we can best serve you.

*trustworthy

